

Festival policy

Photopolis Agrinio Photo Festival, announces a film competition and invites you to submit your work in the category: Short Films.

Participation is €10

Participants are requested to submit their project(s) electronically, which must be downloadable, with a maximum duration of twenty minutes (20'), as well as a short descriptive text of the project and a bio of director.

If the official spoken language is not Greek, then the necessary Greek subtitles material should also be submitted.

The results will be announced by April 1, 2025 on the festival website (www.photopolis.gr), on social media, while the creators of the selected works will also be informed by e-mail.

Awards & Prizes

Best Film Award

Best Storyline Award

Best Photography Award

The selected works will be part of the screenings of the festival at the Municipal Cinema in September 2025.

Rules & Terms

1. The projects must be product of the participant.
2. In case that the works depict persons unknowingly or without their approval, as well as for the general audiovisual material being used, responsibility lies solely with the creator to whom the work belongs and not the Photopolis Festival.
3. If the official spoken language is not Greek, then the necessary Greek subtitles material should also be submitted.
4. Each participant can enter as many films as they want but only one can be selected (if selected).
5. The copyright of each work belongs to its creators.
6. The festival reserves the right to publish photos and trailers of the films for its advertising